Commissioner Brooks: Madam President Hall, esteemed members of the Crowley ISD Board of Trustees and Superintendent Dr. Michael McFarland, thank you for inviting me to take part in this important event.

On behalf of the Tarrant County Commissioners and Precinct 1, it is my honor to lead this Oath of Office for the Chief of the newly formed Crowley ISD Police Department, Mr. Le'Shai Maston.

Our community values the work of the Crowley Independent School District, and we know that safe and secure schools are a crucial part of student success.

Chief Maston, please recite your oath of office.

Chief Maston: I, Le'Shai Maston, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the duties of Chief of Police of the Crowley Independent School District Police Department and will to the best of my ability preserve, protect and defend the Constitution and Laws of the United States and of the state of Texas.

And furthermore I solemnly swear (or affirm) to uphold the mission, vision, values and goals of the Crowley Independent School District to help all students thrive by ensuring a safe, secure and nurturing school environment.

So help me God

Commissioner Brooks: Thank you, Chief Maston. And now, now please recite the International Association of Chiefs of Police Law Enforcement Oath of Honor.

Chief Maston: On my honor, I will never betray my integrity, my character or the public trust. I will always have the courage to hold myself and others accountable for our actions. I will always maintain the highest ethical standards and uphold the values of my community, and the agency I serve.

Commissioner Brooks: President Hall, trustees, and Superintendent McFarland, it is with great honor that I, as a proud supporter and advocate of the students and staff of Crowley ISD, officially introduce Chief Le'Shai Maston.

Upon swearing to the Oath of Office in front of a Notary of the Public a signed copy is placed in the Chief's personnel file.
